

Obituary for Charles E. Schloff

5/11/1933 - 2/15/2011

Charles E. Schloff Naples, FL

Charles E. Schloff, Lifelong educator, he loved children and family. Dedicated to his profession, Charlie shared his love of learning and innovative mathematics with students of all ages. He is survived by his wife, Carolyn, with whom he shared 49 wonderful years of marriage. Also survived by his three children; thirteen grandchildren; and his sister, Helen J. Bales. He is predeceased by his parents, Elmer E. and Helen E. Schloff. A celebration of his life will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, February 26, 2011 at The First Presbyterian Church of Dearborn, 600 North Brady Street, Dearborn, MI. To honor Charlie's love of children and music, in lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to: The Bay View Association Charles E. Schloff Memorial Fund Bay View Association, P.O. Box 583, Petoskey, MI 49770.

It is the family's intention to establish a music scholarship fund for children of Bay View.

For online condolences, please visit www.fullerfuneralhome.com.

Published in Naples Daily News on February 21, 2011