

Obituary for Grace Stevens Grubb

5/2/1914 - 6/10/2011

Grace V. Stevens Grubb, born in Detroit on May 2, 1914, Grace entered God's eternal kingdom on June 10th. Grace graduated from Northwestern High School, Detroit, MI. A member of the Christian Missionary Alliance Church, she and her husband Owen were instrumental in establishing the Greenfield Methodist Church and later became members of the Covenant Baptist Church in Detroit. Her piano playing brought hours of entertainment to many as did her humorous and inspirational presentations, talents she often and even recently displayed to residents of Independence Village, Petoskey. For nearly 60 years she was immersed in the life of the Bay View Association and greatly revered the friendships she made. After leaving Detroit, Bay View became her home. She was preceded in death by her parents; husbands Owen Stevens and Carl Grubb; and brothers, Reginald, Clarence, Perry and Leonard Broquet. Surviving family members include sister, Ruth Weatherdon, Jupiter, FL, son Glenn Stevens (Betty) of Bay View and Naples, FL, daughter Dawn Baldwin (David), Glen Arbor, MI, son Donald Stevens (Faith) of Austin, TX and stepson Charles Grubb (Maureen), Shreveport, LA. Grandchildren are Glenn Stevens, Beverly Hills, MI, Laurie Sykes (Robert), Ionia, MI, Christopher Stevens, Holland, MI, Craig Baldwin (Melinda), Saginaw, MI, Anne Chalesle (Nicolas), Chicago, IL, Karin Stevens, Chicago, IL, Lindsay Stevens, Palo Alto, CA, Jennifer(Grubb) Farmer, Julie and Jason Grubb, Shreveport, LA. Great grandchildren: Charles, James and John Stevens, Emily and Sarah Sykes, David and Catherine Baldwin, Gabriel Chalesle and Caden (Grubb) Farmer. Numerous nieces and nephews include Ronald (Nancy) Broquet, Petoskey. A family-centered funeral will be held on Saturday, June 18 at 2 pm at the Stone Funeral Home, Petoskey, with visitation preceding from 1-2. Burial will be at Greenwood Cemetery.

A Bay View memorial service will take place at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Gideons International in her memory.
